Beautiful Koa Bowls

Jonathan Somaoang is a talented artist with the spiritual gift of creating beautiful sculptures and Hawaiian handmade wooden bowls made from various types of native Hawaiian woods. He uses woods such as Milo, Koa, Kamani, Ohia, Pheasant Wood, Monkey Pod Mango, among others.

His beautiful turned bowls with barked edges are outstanding. His works incorporate all the natural forms, balance and texture of the natural wood, together with the warm Hawaiian spirit of aloha that emanates from his heart and is cultivated and instilled into his works creating long-lasting & vibrant colors in his masterpieces.

He also has tikis, menehune, marine life and giant fish hooks available.
